GEOGRAPHY BEE

It's not too early to prepare for the CCS National Geographic Society Geography Bee to be held Dec. 19. We will begin the preliminary rounds at 8:30 am in the classrooms.

The final round will be in the gym around 10:00 am. All 4-8 graders will participate.

Some ways to prepare for the competition are to look at an atlas and discuss the physical features of an area, the major ports and cities, bodies of water, and location. Also information about the currency, major imports and exports, ethnic groups, flag, religion, and any other aspects of culture are useful.

This is a great opportunity for your family to have fun learning about our world. It is also a great opportunity to pray more effectively for a world that needs Jesus.

If you are interested in helping with the Geography Bee, please contact Twila Griffiths at 308-631-1743. Thanks!

WELCOME SHANA GULBRANSON

Shana is a student at Chadron State College, who will be a student teacher in the Kindergarten room with Ms. Berganza. Shana has a long history of service to our Saviour and has connections to our school because her brother married Levi Umble's sister. Shana was still a toddler when I helped her parents with Awana while I attended college at Chadron State eighteen years ago. Isn't it fun to see God work in bringing people together for His purposes? Please help us welcome Shana to CCS.

SCRIP GIFT CARDS

We encourage you to order early. Scrip has informed us that Christmas ordering is much slower because of the volume. Gift cards make great teachers' gifts! Local cards are always available in the office. Cards to non-local businesses must be ordered by Dec 15 @ 10:00 am. Now available in the office: Barnes & Noble, Best Buy, Hallmark, TJ Maxx.

RAUL GARCIA FUNDRAISER

We have had an overwhelming response to this fundraiser. Instead of limiting the giving to $1.00 donations we are letting families and children give what they would like.

NEW BOARD MEMBER BALLOTS

According to school policy, you will be receiving, by mail, a ballot for two vacant positions on the School Board. Kevin Woodward, father of Logan (7th) and Sarah (4th), and Kay Grote, mother of Holly (7th) and Riley (4th) have submitted their applications and have completed their Pastoral Advisory Interviews. Please prayerfully consider your vote.
