Enchilada Sale

We will kick off the enchilada sales fundraiser Friday, January 13, 2012. Each child will be taking home a sales envelope with their name on it. Many in our community are waiting for us to sell our enchiladas. Some have already asked when they are being made!

Orders are January 13th -23th

Thank You Byron Holzworth for installing our new BB hoops!

NEEDS FOR CHINA STUDENTS:

We are still in need of a host family for one of our students. Please pray and ask the Holy Spirit to speak to your heart. If you are moved to aide in this way let Krystal know in the office at 308-632-2230.

We need twin beds, dressers, etc.... for the China Students; also respite families. A respite family is a support family and gets to help with child care, prayer requests, and be available to assist Host Families in times of need. If you are interested or have questions please call Krystal.
